alarm or apprehension of our Exhibitors—to pay off to arrange all the debts pressing upon us, and provide against the possible occurrence of such annoyances in future.
We therefore advise you that the Exhibition will be temporarily closed this evening, in order to be completely renovated and refitted, preparatory to its formal reopening, on Thursday the 4th day of May next.

The directors need not, surely, dilate on the value and importance of this Exhibition. Imperfect as it has hitherto been, and as, in view of the total want of experience on our side of the Atlantic in the arrangement of Exhibitions of such magnitude and variety, it could not fail to be, it has yet proved immensely beneficial to the inventive views, artistic developments, and industrial progress of the country. The opportunity therein afforded for bringing valuable inventions or improvements to the immediate notice of the capable and appreciating, is but one among many benefits conferred on the leaders of industrial enterprise among us. If overweening conceit or inordinate self-complacency has been rebuked and chastened by irrefragable evidences of European superiority in elaborate and delicate workmanship, or even in educated, ripened taste, the Exhibition of 1883 has fully demonstrated the indebtedness of Europe to America for very important inventions and improvements, stretching over the whole domain of Agriculture, Manufactures and the useful Arts. In farming implements, and machines for sifting the rude staples of Agriculture, for the convenient and economic use of the fabrication, our country need fear no comparison; and a young nation of twenty millions which while still ardently employed in the clearing away of its primitive forests, has found time in half a century to bestow on mankind such inventions as those of the Cotton Gin the Steamboat, the Reaper and the Electric Telegraph, need surely neither repress nor conceal her ability to profit by all in the line of discovery, Art or Invention, which has been or may be exhibited by others. If the New York Exhibition has shown our people how to improve any implement or process in the light of European achievement, that impulse is a National benefit of signal and even increasing value.

If the past has witnessed mistakes in the conduct of the great enterprise now confided to our hands, that circumstance will render our own task easier and our success more obtainable. If it has evolved many valuable suggestions and illuminated for us the path of duty by triumphs as well as defeats, we shall be able to walk surely where our predecessors stepped dubiously and anxiously. With your co-operation, and that of the coming Futures, Whineys and Moores, whose triumphs are yet unachieved or unacknowledged, we hope to render the Crystal Palace the recognized centre of attraction for the votaries of Industry, the devotees of Art and the admirers of Genius, throughout the Western World.

To effect this, we need the hearty and immediate co-operation of the present Exhibitors, both through the continuance of their best contributions, and the introduction of others, as new inventions, new patterns, new successes, shall render such further aid practicable. While we trust that the Exhibition is henceforth permanently established, and that before many more years have elapsed, specimens or models of every valuable Institution, eminent works of Art, improved Fabrics, or other industrial achievements, will be exhibited in the Palace, as a matter of course, we shall yet remember with special gratitude, those friends of the enterprise who did not wait for its triumph, swood by it in the days of experiment, and nobly aided to achieve the conquest which so many are destined to enjoy.
We shall be able, and we rejoice in the fact, to accord more desirable positions and ample space to new Articles which shall be sent in between this and the 1st of May, than it is probable that we shall have at our disposal thereafter. The earliest possible transmission of all Articles intended for Exhibition, at and after the re-opening, is urgently solicited.

Trusting that you will agree with us, that the interest of Inventors, Artists, Manufacturers and Artisans, are all involved in the thorough and undivided triumph of the first American Exhibition of the trophies of the World's Art and Industry, we remain, Yours,
P. T. BARNUM,
President of the Association for the Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations.

try.

WASHINGTON, April 18.
SENATE.—The Senate was in secret session till 6 o'clock and then adjourned.

HOUSE.—The business concluded, pending a motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate's bill, increasing the salaries of clerks, was ordered to a third reading.

The House then adjourned.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

SENATE.—Mr. Cass presented a memorial from the Jewish citizens asking that efforts may be made to secure religious toleration to American citizens in foreign countries.

Mr. Everett, from the committee on foreign relations, reported a bill to further the settlement of Spanish claims under the Florida treaty.

Mr. Shields reported a bill regulating the pay of pension agents and the settlement of their accounts.

The Homestead bill was taken up and Mr. Pettitt spoke in favor thereof, after which it was postponed.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the bill increasing the salaries of clerks and other officers in the Departments.

Mr. Jones, of Tenn., moved an amendment that nothing in the bill shall be construed to make appropriation beyond the present fiscal year. After debate the amendment was adopted. The bill was then passed, yeas 76, nays 65.

Mr. Lane, of Oregon, introduced a bill to enable the people of Oregon to form a constitution for State government and to provide for the admission of such State into the Union, which was referred.

The House went into committee on the West Point Academy bill as returned from the Senate with amendments, pending debate the committee rose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 20.

SENATE.—Mr. Broadhead presented a memorial asking an amendment of the Homestead bill so as to require the Treasurer of the U. S. to pay back to all persons the the amounts paid by them for public lands.

Mr. Wade presented a memorial from Ohio against the extension of slavery.

The bill establishing the land system for New Mexico was passed.

The Senate then went into executive session, after which they adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.—The House passed the Senate's bill authorizing the Postmaster General to continue contract for carrying the mails between Mobile and Montgomery.

The House then went into committee on the West Point Academy bill, and passed the most of the Senate's amendments.

The committee rose and the House then adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 20.

SENATE.—After Mr. Thompson, of Kentucky, concluded his speech, the Senate adjourned. His speech was most eloquent, and of a very amusing character calling forth repeated applause.

WASHINGTON, April 22.

The Senate is not in session.

HOUSE.—A bill authorizing the Postmaster General to contract for semi-monthly or weekly mails to California was introduced and postponed until the first Monday in June.

The House went into Committee on Private Bills, and then adjourned until Monday.

WASHINGTON, April 18.

The Gadsden treaty was rejected by the Senate to-day by the decisive vote of 26 to 18. The injunction of secrecy was not removed, so nothing definite as to the details can be known. Much speculation exists as to the effect of the rejection. It was intimated by the President and certain members of the Cabinet, while the treaty was under discussion, that a refusal of the Senate to ratify it would be followed by immediate war with Mexico—the president feeling himself called upon to seize the Mayaville valley, let come what may. This inasmuch as was considered as an attempt to intimidate the Senate, and those best informed here think that the President will rather appoint another commissioner to negotiate a treaty than make war.
Under the existing circumstances all are waiting anxiously for the development of the policy in the premises.

CHARLOTTE, April 15.

The grand Southern Pacific railroad project was adopted. The clause authorizing the corporation to negotiate with Mexico was strongly opposed. Resolutions in favor of the Gadsden treaty and alternate sections of public lands for railroad purposes caused bitter opposition.

The convention adjourned to meet in New Orleans the second Monday in January.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

SENATE.—After some unimportant business the Senate took up the Homestead bill. Mr. Thompson, of Ky., made a strong speech against the bill, characterizing it as a premium to foreign paupers and to those who are too lazy to work.

HOUSE.—The bill for the benefit of indigent insane of the several States was taken up and passed—yeas 81, nays 55. The bill grants 10,000,000 acres of land to be appropriated according to the geographical and representative ratio.

The House then adjourned.

THE TRIAL OF THE WARD.—The trial of Mat. F. Ward and his younger brother, Robert J. Ward, Jr., for the murder of Mr. W. G. Butler, was to commence at Elizabethtown of Friday the 18th.
A great crowd of witnesses are said to be in attendance, especially on the part of the defense, for the purpose of proving the amiable character of the defendants. On account says that eighteen lawyers have been engaged for the defense, among whom are Hons. John L.
Crittenden, T. F. Marshall, John L.
Helm and Nathaniel Wolf.

For the prosecution are the Commonwealth's Attorney, Alfred Allen, R. B.
Carpenter, Esq., of Covington, F. W.
Gibson, Esq., of Louisville, and Sylvester Harris, of Elizabethtown.

News reached Louisville on Tuesday night that Judge Kincheloe had made an order forbidding the publication of the testimony. The Court refuses to credit the report, but denounces the order, if made, as tyrannical and absurd.

The Democrat openly avows its intention to disregard it, as a restriction beyond the constitutional power of the Judge to make. Both papers take the ground and maintain that the people of Louisville and elsewhere have the same right to read the testimony as the people of Elizabethtown or visitors there have to hear it; and that the Judge has no more right to muzzle the press than to hold his court in secret.

All the Louisville papers have or had reporters upon the ground.

P. S. The preceding is founded upon what appeared in the Louisville papers of Wednesday. Those of yesterday bring us the fact that the trial of Mat.
F. Ward, the principal, is progressing, but no testimony; the reporters being allowed seats in the Court House only upon condition that the evidence reported should not be published during the progress of the trial. We subjoin a few extracts from the Democrat's correspondence:

ELIZABETHTOWN April 19th.

Messrs. Editors.—Yesterday morning, the case of the Commonwealth vs.
Mat. F. and Robt. Ward, was called.
The defense moved for separate trials, and the Judge held their right to separate trials, and the right of the Commonwealth to elect which should be tried first.

The latter chose to try the principal, and the defense announced themselves ready. The next step was the great point of interest—the jury.—After exhausting the panel and calling forty more—sixty-four in all—a jury was obtained, and here are the names:

Thomas H. Yates, Asa Buckles, R.
McIntyre, John Young, Thomas Thurston, Green Walker, James Crutcher, George Stump, Abram Neighbors, Richard Pierce, J. C. Chenoweth, W. Eld-son.

In the afternoon, the examination of witnesses commenced, and four of the boys belonging to Butler's school were examined—Messrs. Knight, Worthington, Pirtle and Pope. A rigid cross-examination made no material modification of the direct statements.

The trial proceeds this morning. At present rates it will require several days to get through the testimony. The Commonwealth will occupy a day more, at least, and the defense, if all their witnesses are examined, will not get through for several days. Then the number of counsel indicates a long period of speeches.

A sharp passage of words between Mr.
T. F. Marshall and Mr. R. B. Carpenter, two of the counsel in the case, is mentioned, but it seems to have passed over without any serious difficulty.

The correspondent of the Times gives the full list of the counsel employed, as follows:

Counsel for Prosecution—Alfred Allen, of Breckinridge, Commonwealth's Attorney; assisted by R. B. Carpenter, of Covington; F. W. Gibson, of Louisville; Sylvester Harris, of Hardin.

Counsel for Accused—Hon. John J.
Crittenden, of Franklin; Hon. Thomas F. Marshall, of Woodford; Hon. John L.
Helm, of Hardin; Hon. George A. Caldwell, of Louisville; James W. Hays, R.
B. Hays, of Hardin.

THE HOFFMAN TRAGEDY.—Hoffman, who was shot recently by Mrs. Mary Baker, died on Thursday evening last at the Sisters Hospital. For some time after the occurrence his friends entertained the hope that he would recover, but there was a calm and settled conviction in the mind of the deceased that he would die. He spoke of it without fear, and at times seemed annoyed at the expression of friends who would speak to him encouragingly of any improvement in his condition, and the prospect of his ultimate recovery. For several days past his symptoms appeared unfavorable and on the afternoon of the day of his death he commenced sinking rapidly. He was perfectly conscious all the time and occasional conversed with some of his friends who were present. A few minutes before his death he requested one of the Sisters, who was in his room, not to leave him, and intimated that he was dying, and almost instantly breathed his last, without a struggle.

Before his death he had desired that a post mortem examination should be made and designated the persons he wished to be present at it.

A Coroner's Inquest was held on Friday morning, and a large amount of testimony taken but the facts developed are already familiar to the reader.

The verdict was that Wm. O. Hoffman came to his death from a pistol shot, in the hands of Mrs. Mary Baker, wife of Wilson C. Baker, on the 5th of April, 1884, in the city of St. Louis.

THE PRICE OF A VOTE.—The Maine Temperance Journal has a story under the title of "the Senator," from which the following is an extract:

As Mrs. Madison was laying aside her cloak after the ride, the cook told her that there was a poor woman who wanted to speak with her. Going down she found a Mrs. Burns, who, in former times, had nearly lived upon her charity. But her husband, an intemperate man, had, for the last four months, reformed and provided comfortably for his family.

"How is this, Mrs. Burns? you look as if you were in trouble again," said the Senator's wife, in her winning, sympathizing manner. The woman glanced almost fiercely from the corner by the range where she was standing, for she would not sit.

"Trouble! you may well call it trouble," she said briefly.

"Is your husband drinking again?"

"Aye! worse than ever."

"What a pity—what a great pity!"

"Yes! it is a pity for him, and a pity for me, and a pity for the children; but it is a pity, too, for them as has the blame of it —a pity and a shame!"

"Has any one the blame of his evil conduct except himself?" asked Mrs. Madison gently for she saw that her visitor was much excited.

"There are those, ma'am, whom God will not hold guiltless at the judgment day. Fine gentlemen they are, too, and fine speeches they can make about their principles; and your husband, is one of them—he's one of them as has the fault of my poor man on his head."

"Hush, Mrs. Burns," said the lady, while the roses flushed out into her face,
"you must not speak so in my presence."

"But I will speak so ma'am, for I came here to tell you the truth. You are an angel almost, I know; and have been good to me and mine; but that doesn't signify but that you are too good for him. There is no kinder man than mine when he is sober; and not a drop of liquor did he taste since last March, until election day.
He earned his dollar a day, and brought it home at night; the children had shoes and decent clothes, and Tom went to school; and you couldn't find a woman with a happier heart than mine. But election times must come, and my husband must have his say with the rest, and as he walks along the street towards the polls, Mr. Madison comes up and shakes hands with his sweet smile, and says 'who are you going to support to-day, Mr. Burns?' So my husband tells him, and he says, 'you will make a great mistake if you do that. Their party don't care any more for you or any other honest working man, than just to get your vote, and when they have got it, and got the power, they will use it against you, and wages will come down, and the poor will suffer,' or some other kind of speeches. I don't believe it, Mr. Madison says my husband. 'Well, just step in and take a glass of something to make you reasonable, and we'll talk it over,' says Mr. Madison. 'I am obliged to you, but I don't drink anything now,' says Tom. 'I am glad to hear it,' says your fine gentleman, 'but just take a little to-day—it will help you to see clearer, which of us is in the right.' The pleasant smiles and the fine words were more than he could resist, and he went in and your husband treated him, and got his vote, and he came home drunk that night and he has been drunk ever since.
Not a day's work has been done; the little silver there was laid by has gone; the children are cold, and there is no fire; and he's warming himself by the bar room fire, that's only better than flames below."

For the Herald.

Greenfield, Hancock Co., Ind.
April 20, 1884.

Mrs. FRENCH:

I arrived here April 1st in a snow storm, and rain, snow and cold damp weather has been pretty much the order of the day up to this time, with a few exceptions. This however is a beautiful day. The bad weather and preaching last Sunday night in the Court House, between two hot fires and a large drum well heated just near enough to bake my brains, has given me a severe cold. And while sick I was naturally led to think of the past and of Old Kentucky and of course my thoughts would center about Georgetown. And while thus reflecting, I thought of my little friend, of the corpse Editorial, with his spectacles on, in the "sanctum of the Herald office" driving his old gray goose quill. This reminds me of my promise to that gentleman and I am trying thus to perform my duty. I have been holding a meeting here about once a day for 20 days, we have organized a church of over 40 members, 13 of these were pioneers from the ranks of his Santino majesty.
The rest were brethren living here as sheep without a shepherd. One of those baptized was our old countryman and a mason Alex. K. Branham. The citizens have subscribed about $900.00 towards building a meeting house, which will be commenced as soon as possible. This is a flourishing little town of about 500 inhabitants, and the capital of Hancock county. The Indiana Central Rail-road runs through the south part of it.

There is in it a Methodist Congregation and meeting house. The Presbyterians have secured a lot on which to build. We expect to build a meeting house this season, for the Christian church. The Masonic brethren expect to commence building a lodge this coming summer. The lodge meets to night for that purpose. I forgot to state that this place is also situated on the National road. And there is issued in it a neat little weekly "The Family Friend" edited by Thos. D. Wright, and so far as I have observed a very clever gentleman.
Any one who will observe the western emigration on the National road, for twenty days will be led to the conclusion, that the west is the promised land of the American. The people here are very clever indeed, and very solicitous for me to stay here, but I expect to go on and see the 'great west.' This country is flat land as far as I have observed.

But when opened and drained is fine farming land. I will now close by wishing you and all my old friends and fellow citizens health and happiness.
Yours truly,
JAS. L. THORNBERRY.

NON-INTERVENTION.—The Boston Post, discussing the Nebraska bill, says that—

President Jefferson declared that to regulate the conditions of men composing a state was certainly the exclusive right of every State, which nothing in the constitution has taken from them and given to the general government:

President Madison declared not only against this State restriction, but that territorial slavery restriction was not within the powers of the general government:

President Monroe declared his determination to veto the principle of State restriction, and that the territorial restriction was repugnant to the principles of the constitution.

President Adams declared it was not within the powers of Congress to impose the proposed slavery prohibition on a sovereign State:

President Jackson declared that Missouri would never humble herself to submit to such a prohibition, and denounced it:

President Harrison declared that the northwest States, notwithstanding the 1794 ordinance, had the right to establish slavery or prohibit it, as they please, and that the State restriction proposed for Missouri was unconstitutional.

SAVE YOUR ICE AND DRINK PURE WATER.

Economy, Convenience and Luxury Combined.

WINCHELL'S WATER COOLERS.

THE season is again at hand when the use of ice becomes indispensable to the comfort and health of every family.

The undersigned has for several years past been engaged in the manufacture of the above named article, and has devoted much time and labor in perfecting them. Knowing their great utility, economy and convenience, must bring them into very general use. They have become indispensable to every house-keeper.
The fact has been demonstrated beyond question, that they will preserve ice longer than any of the devices which have been brought out for that purpose. The convenience of always having ICE WATER ready for drinking, is fully appreciated by those who have used this article.

The undersigned has larger and better facilities for manufacturing Water Coolers, than any establishment in the country, and is now prepared to supply them in any quantity.

To Merchants and others buying to sell a liberal discount is made. They can be packed and shipped to any part of the country with perfect safety.

REMOVAL.—GEORGE D. WINCHELL, Manufacturer of Improved and Standard Water Coolers, Toilet Ware, &c., &c., having removed from the old stand, corner of Walnut and Pearl, to the N. W. CORNER OF RACE AND COLUMBIA, (or Second street), and having largely increased facilities for manufacturing, is now prepared to supply dealers, on liberal terms.

Tinners, Store Dealers and others will find it greatly to their interest to purchase their stock direct from the manufacturer.

I have also recently made such arrangements with the manufacturers of TINNERS' MACHINES AND TOOLS, as to be constan-ly supplied. Among which will be found some newly invented labor saving machines, which can be seen in operation. All of which will be sold at manufacturers' prices.

Great Private Meeting.

"Arbitration" nominee laid on the shelf!! Likewise all the balance of the fishy Ass-pirants!! Unanimous nomination of the only really INDEPENDENT candidate!! The veritable "people's man!!" defying the machinations of both parties!! Young America vs. Old Fogeyism, &c &c.

At a large and highly respectable meeting, composed of the Editor of the Herald and "Better Half," Esq., held at Independent Hall, on Monday evening County Court day, the object of the meeting having been stated by the chairman, the following preamble and resolutions, after an animated discussion, in which "Better Half," Esq., was quite eloquent, were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, Tobacco is a noxious Indian weed, of which we use as little as possible; and whereas, thanks to the liberality of our friend KEENE we have an abundant supply of choice brands of Tobacco on hand; and whereas Tobacco is, next to whisky, the best article to electioneer with; and whereas our "next best friend" is an independent candidate for the office of sheriff, and not the pliant tool of a clique, caucus, convention or "Arbitration!!" and hence has to "hoe his own road," to the homes and hearts of the "dear people," therefore unanimously

Resolved, That said individual be declared the nominee of the county for the office of Sheriff; not to vote for whom shall be declared "treason to the party."

Resolved, That all the other candidates be requested or required to surrender their Ass-pirations, for the sole benefit of said nominee.

Resolved, That we now appoint a committee of one "friend" each, to devise ways and means whereby the candidate of our choice, H. R. French, may dispose of the superfluity of choice tobacco aforementioned.

The committee retired to the fire place, and after a few moments returned to the meeting and reported the following additional resolutions, which were likewise unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our candidate is authorized and instructed to distribute said choice tobacco liberally among his tobacco chewing constituents, and wherever and whenever he meets voters in the vicinity of a grocery or a hotel, to treat them like gentlemen! Likewise to keep a sharp eye on the "pints," when tea, snuff, coffee, pasturage, &c., are hinted at by independent voters.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Herald, the only independent paper in the county, and the editor thereof, (our Chairman) be tendered a ticket for soup at Simon's, for the bold, manly and patriotic stand he has ever taken in support of the "people's rights" (guaranteed by the new Constitution,) and in opposition to selfish cliques and caucuses.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered to our Chairman, for the able, dignified and impartial manner in which he has presided over this numerous and respectable body of independent voters.

In response to this flattering resolution, a few pertinent and eloquent remarks were made by the Chairman; who declared his intention to do or die in defence of the rights of the "dear people!"

Meanwhile "Better Half," Esq., occupied the Chair with a grace and dignity seldom equaled and never surpassed by any advocate of "Woman's Rights!" "And then, the Chairman having resumed his seat, on motion of "Better Half," Esq. (a very significant motion, by the-by,) the meeting forthwith adjourned to "the land of nod!"

INDEPENDENT EDITOR.

Chairman.

"BETTER HALF," Secretary.

That "Scott hen" is "some," we confess. She intends to make up in quantity what she lacks in the size of her eggs; but the story needs authentication, and we feel unwilling to admit the testimony offered. No unmarried man is a competent witness in such a case, and none but a hen-pecked husband would like to risk his reputation for veracity, upon such a statement. No "insinuations," however, old friend—State Flag.

We "acknowledge the corn." on behalf of our friend the "candidate for matrimony;" for on being shown the foregoing paragraph, he very frankly acknowledged that so close had been his investigation that he actually had been "hen-pecked!"

These political editors, however, can never be relied on; they are always making mountains out of mole hills.—Georgetown Herald.

This accounts for our assiduous attentions to our Georgetown neighbor; we are anxious to make something great out of him—even a mountain; but in spite of all we can do for him, he remains a mole hill still.—Flag.

Better be a modest mole hill than a monster mountain, (like Pike,) always in labor with small affairs!

Among the important bills pending in Congress is the land Graduation Bill, which was discussed in Committee of the Whole, in the House of Representatives, on the 13th, and reported, after several amendments were adopted. This bill provides that when lands shall have been in market for ten years, they shall be sold at one dollar per acre; after fifteen years, at seventy five cents; after twenty years, at fifty cents; after thirty years, at twelve and a half cents; provided, that nothing therein shall be so construed as to extend to lands reserved to the United States in the acts granting lands to the States for railroad or other purposes, or to the mineral lands which are held at a higher price. Nor is the bill to be construed as to interfere with pre-emption rights in any of the States or Territories.

At the Southern Convention, Parsons Brownlow, the eccentric editor of Tennessee having been called upon for a speech, held forth as follows:

"I decline making a speech, and I submit nothing now for the convention; but I will say a word or two expressive of my opinion, and I will come to what I am aiming at, by remarking that when our Pilgrim fathers landed at Plymouth Rock they adopted three resolutions:—They 'Resolved first, That the earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; Resolved secondly, That the earth is intended by the Lord as an inheritance for his saints; Resolved, thirdly, That we are the saints.' I therefore concluded my remarks, by Resolved, firstly, That the island of Cuba is the Lord's and the fulness thereof; Resolved, secondly, That he intends it for the saints of the South; and Resolved, thirdly, That we are the saints." [Laughter.]

INFORMATION WANTED BY A SISTER.—My two brothers lived in Clermont county, Ohio, about eight years ago; their names are Richard and Evan Hughes. Any information concerning either of them, would be gratefully received by their sister. Direct to M. G., Postoffice, Columbus.

Editors will confer a favor by publishing the above.

The Washington correspondent of the Mayville Express, in noticing the visit of Gov. Powell to the Federal City, pays him a very high, but deserved compliment, in saying he is not only a most agreeable gentleman, but a statesman of enlarged views and solid acquirements, which eminently fit him for any position in which the people might think fit to place him.

A "FAST" TOWN.—In 1850 the population of Cleveland, Ohio,—a few years before no town at all—was put down at 17,600. Now it is 50,000! That beats Louisville. It goes ahead of even Chicago.

"The Cave of Machpelah, &c." by James Challen has just been received through the courtesy of the Author. The poem is founded on Scriptural scenes, of deep interest, and would doubtless interest the Biblical reader. It is a neatly bound volume of about 150 pages 12 mo. and is furnished at the low price of $1 per copy. Address James Challen, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Lady's Book for May, fully maintains the reputation of that popular periodical, as regards engravings, letter press printing, &c. As the vide mecum of the fair sex we presume that the Lady's Book is not excelled by any publication of a similar character, now extant.

Graham's Magazine for the present month, abounds with valuable matter adapted to various tastes, and is, as usual, handsomely illustrated. George Graham, Publisher, Philadelphia, Pa. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance.

The trial of NEAL BALLINGAL, for having in his possession counterfeit money, with intent to pass the same, took place in the Fleming Circuit Court on Tuesday of last week, and resulted in his conviction and sentence for 8 years to the penitentiary. Two other indictments against him are yet to be tried.

GOVERNMENT CLERKS.—There are employed in the different executive departments in Washington 737 clerks, who are divided into four classes: the first class receiving $900; the second class $1200; the third class $1,500; and the fourth class $1,800 per annum.

The St. Louis Republican in speaking of the Ward trial, says: "As not only the Wards, but Kentucky is on trial in this case, great anxiety will be felt in the result."

The members of the Mason bar gave a complimentary dinner to Judge DUVALL on Thursday, the 13th inst.

STONE MINDED WOMEN.—On the books at Willard's Hotel, Washington, is the following recent entry: "Mrs. Lewis—and husband, Buffalo."

SLEEPING ACCOMMODATIONS ON RAILROADS.—The patent reclining seats introduced by the Baltimore and Philadelphia railroad, into their night car, are attracting the deserved economies of travellers. The patent seats have also been introduced upon the Wilmington and Raleigh, and the Wilmington and Manchester Railroads, and are all that is claimed for them. There can be no question of their general adoption in cars running at night.—[Baltimore Am.]

Lying in bed with head high, the Medical Journal says, is unhealthy. In all diseases attended with fever, the head should be pretty nearly on a level with the body, and people ought to accustom themselves to sleep thus to avoid danger.

Among the important movements of Congress deserving of special notice, are the rejection by the Senate of the Gadsden treaty and the passage by the House of the bill to graduate and reduce the price of public lands.

THE LIQUOR LAW IN VERMONT.—Judge Pierpont has decided at Rutland that so much of the Liquor Prohibition act of that State as directs that seized Liquor shall be destroyed without direct proof that any has been sold, is unconstitutional. (This is on the basis of the Massachusetts decision.) The case goes up to the Supreme Court, but a similar decision is apprehended there.

A GREAT AND NOVEL ENTERPRISE.—We publish in our advertising columns a magnificent gift enterprise, (the third of a series,) started in New York by Mr. Parham, who has been long and favorably known throughout the North and East. An examination of it will present features that commend it to the attention of every man, woman and child in the community. We have only to say that the former enterprises of this indefatigable manager have been characterized by the greatest fairness, and given the utmost satisfaction to all concerned. Send in your orders for tickets as early as possible, as they will undoubtedly be taken up in a short time.

In Newport last week the Council allowed Mayor Fearson $10, last year's salary as Mayor.

The new York Senate has re-passed the liquor bill, vetoed by the Governor, with a clause, submitting it to the people for ratification. It will now probably re-pass the House also.

HE WILL NOT WOO AGAIN.

"'Twas but a word, a careless word, In pride and passion spoken; But with that word the chain that bound Two loving hearts was broken. The happy wish has passed away, The bitter words remain; In vain the lady weeps and sighs— He will not woo again."

No other love may light her path; No other move his heart: Yet changing seasons come and go, And find them still apart; Her once bright cheek is paler now; His heart's a trace of pain; Their days are sorrowful, and yet He will not woo again.

They meet as strangers, calm and cold, At calmly, coldly part; And none may guess that tranquil mein Conceals a tortured heart. To him the world has lost its light; For her all joys are vain; Nor hope nor memory brings relief— He will not woo again.

Alas! that love long tried and worn, Should wither in an hour; Alas! that pride o'er human hearts Should wield such fearful power. Oh! weep thou out for those who die— For them all tears are vain; But weep o'er living hearts grown cold Who ne'er may love again.

Jos. Wason, Sr., of Lexington, has sold his farm lying in Harrison and Bourbon counties, adjoining Leesburg, containing 340 acres to Silas H. Corbin, for $70 per acre.—Cynthiana News.

NOT ALL LOST YET.—We are pleased to learn from our Bourbon farmer friends, that the peach crop has not been entirely destroyed by the late frosts; but there is yet a prospect for a moderate supply of that delicious fruit the coming season. State Flag, Paris, Ky.

HELD TO BAIL.—Hiram Lawrence was tried before Judge Thomas, of the City Court, on Wednesday last for shooting Edward Cuddy, with intent to kill, and was held to bail in the sum of $1,000, which he gave and was discharged. The wounded man is still lying in a critical condition, and it is still uncertain whether he will recover.—Observer.

THE TRIAL OF THE WARDS.—The testimony of the defense was nearly if not quite closed on Thursday night. The prosecution expected to offer some rebutting testimony the next day, and it was supposed the argument would commence on Friday evening, and continue into the present week. Four speeches on each side were expected, and in the following order: for the prosecution, Messrs. Carpenter, Harris, Gibson and Allen; for the defense, Messrs. Wolf, Helm, Marshall and Crittenden. It was, it is said, the original arrangement that Mr. Carpenter should close the argument, but he is obliged to be in Gallatin county on Monday to conduct some important case there. Mr. Gibson mentioned in our last as of Louisville, has lately removed to that city from Indiana, where he has been a prominent lawyer for some years. The other counsel on both sides are all pretty well known in Kentucky.

The defense set up and relied upon appears to be that Butler struck Ward before the latter shot him; that Butler was a robust man and Ward a feeble one; and that the shooting was in self-defense. One witness, a Mr. Barlow, swore that Butler told him, after he was shot and carried home, that he had first struck Ward. Mr. Prentice testified to a redness on Ward's cheek half an hour after the occurrence which was or might have been produced by a blow. Ward's paragon testified that the pistol was purchased by Ward to be taken with him on a trip to the South, and consequently, not for the purpose of killing Butler. Such seems to be main grounds of the defense, as we gather from the various correspondents—none of the evidence in anything like detail being given. On the other hand it is intimated that Barlow's statement will be shown to be a fabrication.

Butler's widow was brought to the witness stand by the prosecution to testify as to her husband's despair of life at the time he made certain statements; and her appearance is said to have produced a strong sensation. On the next day, Mrs. Ward, the mother of the accused, gave her testimony, and soon afterwards fainting in the court room. Great sympathy was felt for her.—Commonwealth.

Money Found. A small sum of money was found on Main street, on Wednesday 19th, by a negro girl, which the owner can have by proving property and paying for this advertisement. Enquire at this office.

We learned that on yesterday a difficulty took place at the White Sulphur on the morning of that day in which a man by the name of Toppass (brother to George,) was shot by another named Henry Glass. We were unable to gather any particulars of the cause of the difficulty or its result.

MARKETS.

Saturday, April 23. The market is quiet and we notice a decline in flour, but the meagreness of the receipts will cause the market to be sustained. The weather is warm and sultry, with slight shower of rain. The river is slowly rising. Flour and Grain.—Dull, with sales of about 300 barrels of flour at $7, from stores. Wheat none. Corn from stores at 50c. Oats 45c. Greenies.—We quote Rio coffee at 10c 1/2 a quality, with 47c bags. Sugar 4c 1/2. Provisions.—Sales 500 barrels mess pork at $12 and a sale of 500 barrels lard at $25. Sales 34 cases bacon at 5c for shoulders, 6c 7/8 for clear and ribbed sides, and 10c for canned hams. Tobacco.—Good qualities are maintained with sales Saturday of 30 hds, at prices ranging from $3 30 to $3 90, 8 00, and 68 05. Whisky.—Sales of 140 bbls raw 80c. Sheep.—We note a sale of 250 sheep, for shipment, at $4 20 with wool off.

LOUISVILLE CATTLE MARKET April 23. Recs.—The market continues to be very lightly stocked. Extremes may be given from 6c to 7c, and for a choice lot the outside price was refused; the gross has been readily paid in Shelby for good cattle. Sheep.—None on the market. We quote an extreme 24 to 4c. Lambs $1 50 and upwards. Hogs.—The butchers are paying 3c gross.

CINCINNATI, April 25, P. M. Flour $6 90c 3/4. Whisky 19c. Provisions are flat—sales of 10,000 lbs bulk meat at 4 and 5c for shoulders and sides. There is no change in other articles.

WEAK, NERVOUS, DEPRESSED IN SPIRITS, and a prey to innumerable mental as well as physical evils, the victim of dyspepsia is indeed an object of commiseration. Yet it is absurd for him to despair. We care not how low, weak, nervous and irritable he may be, the cordial properties of Hoffman's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, are stronger than the many headed monster which he is preying upon his body and mind; and if he chooses to try them, we will insure a speedy cure.

EPAGUE AND FEVER of three years standing CURED.—Mr. John Longden, now living at Heaven Dam, Hanover County, Va., near Richmond, had Ague and Fever for three years, most of the time he had chills twice a day, and rarely less than once; he was parched with fever as soon as the chill left him; and after trying physicians quinine, most of the Tonics advertised, and every thing recommended to him, was about to give up in despair, when Carter's Spanish Mixture was spoken of; he got two bottles, but before he had used more than a single one, he was perfectly cured, and has not had a chill or fever since.

Mr. Longden is only one out of thousands who have been benefited by this great tonic, alterative and blood purifier. *See advertisement. April 13, 1854-5.

MIDWIFERY.

MRS. GIBBONS returns her sincere thanks for the liberal patronage hitherto extended to her, and flatters herself that the success which has attended her, in numerous cases, will secure an increase of her circle of practice. Mrs. G. will wait upon ladies in any part of the county, but as her charges are uniform, those who live remote from town, will be expected to furnish a mode of conveyance. Mrs. Gibbons refers to any one of her patrons; also to Dr. Wm. H. Barlow. Residence: near the Masonic Hall. April 27, 1854-7-1/2.

PRACTICAL & ORNAMENTAL Penmanship.

T. J. BRYANT & Co. propose opening their Writing Academy in Georgetown, on Monday next, when all are invited to attend. From their experience in the profession, they feel safe in saying to all, Male or Female, Young or Old, that they bind themselves to render due satisfaction to every attentive pupil. Price for 12 lessons in any plain style of Penmanship, $3.00. Pupils will be requested to furnish their own chairs and ink; also, lights, if the Class meet at night. Copy-Books and Pens at the room for much less than they can be obtained for elsewhere; thus securing to the class a uniform article. N. B. A Splendid Premium will be given to the pupil who makes the most improvement. A. J. 27, 1854-7-1/2.

Gilt Mouldings for Pictures.

CARRIAGES! CARRIAGES!

AFTER MY THANKS TO the public for the very liberal patronage which they have favored me, I would now inform them that I have a fine stock on hand and will be receiving, from the East, additions to it during the entire season; all of which I will sell on the most accommodation terms, and as it is my fixed determination to quit the business, I am satisfied that these wanting any thing in my line will find it to their interest to give me a call. A. W. FORWOOD.

I will also sell on good terms, two dwellings, my Coach Factory, and Two Shops opposite. I deem it unnecessary to give a description of the property as those wanting will examine for themselves. It is one of the best stands in the State for a Carriage Maker. I should be glad to show the above property to any one who may call. A. W. F. April 27, 1854-7-1/2.

The Effects of Bold Inefficiency.

THOMAS PAINE.—In the autobiography of John Adams, the second President of the United States, he says of Paine's pamphlet "Common Sense," that it did but little good to the cause it espoused. Mr. Adams says, "He probably converted some to the doctrine of Independence, and gave others an excuse for declaring in favor of it; but these would all have followed; Congress with zeal and on the other hand it excited many writers against it, particularly 'Plain Truth,' who contributed very largely to fortify and influence the party against independence, and finally lost us the Allens, Penns, and many others of weight in the community."

Mr. Adams gives him no credit for originality in its production. He says "he came from England, and got into such company as would converse with him, and ran about picking up what information he could concerning our affairs; and finding the great question was concerning independence, he gleaned from those he saw the common-place arguments—such as the necessity of independence at some time or other; the peculiar fitness at this time, the justice of it; our ability to maintain it etc., etc. Dr. Rush put him upon writing on the subject, furnished him with the arguments which had been urged in Congress a hundred times, and gave him his title of 'Common Sense.'"

Mr. Adams says further, "I saw he had capacity and a ready pen; and understanding that he was poor and destitute, I thought we might put him into some employment where he might be useful and earn a living. Congress appointed a committee on foreign affairs not long after, and wanted a clerk. I nominated Thomas Paine, supposing him a ready writer and an industrious man. Dr. Witherspoon, the President of New Jersey College, and then a delegate from that state, rose and objected to it with an earnestness that surprised me. The doctor said he would give his reasons; he knew the man and his communications; when he first came over he was on the other side, and had written pieces against the American cause; that he had afterwards been employed by his friend Robert Aikin, and finding the tide of popularity ran rapidly, he had turned about; that he was very temperate, and could not write until he had quickened his thoughts with large draughts of rum and water; that he was, in short, a bad character, and not fit to be placed in such a situation."

A NOBLE UNDERTAKING.—The Odd Fellows in Iowa have commenced and are successfully prosecuting an educational enterprise, which is alike honorable to the heads and hearts of the members of the order.—They have organized a Female College at Iowa city, the capital of the State, on the broad basis and governed by the liberal principles which distinguished that Order, and are now engaged in the erection of a spacious and beautiful school edifice which they hope to complete during the present year; and to defray this expense, have already secured in Iowa a subscription of $6,000.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE subscriber wishes to sell The House and Lot in which he now resides, situated on Main Cross Street, in Georgetown, Ky., adjoining the Georgetown Hotel. The house is of brick, containing nine rooms, a back porch the length of the house, besides kitchen, servant's rooms and all necessary out buildings, including stable, carriage house, &c., all in good repair; the lot fronts on main cross street 120 feet, and running back (in part) to Water street, and is considered one of the best pieces of property in the place; and from its locality, size and general appearance would make a first rate boarding house.

ALSO.—The frame house and lot opposite the above, situated on the east side of Main Cross street, fronting on said street 150 feet and going back 200 feet to a 30 foot street, and containing 1/2 of an acre; upon this lot there is a never failing spring of good water as is in the town. I consider this a superior lot of ground.

THE TAN YARD property adjoining the last mentioned lot.

Containing 1/2 of an acre and enclosed by a substantial stone fence; there is on this lot a large spring of good water, which has never been known to dry; a large brick.

CURRYIN SHOP.

stone tables and large well built bark mill house, and large bark and hide house, all in good repair; this is the best tan yard in Scott County, and the very best stand for buying and collecting hides and skins in this section of the country.

Any person wishing to purchase any of the above named property, will please give me a call, as I am determined to sell.

READ THIS!—MEDICINE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—DR. HALL continues to be consulted at his Office, No. 1 Union Block, west entrance, on all diseases of a PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. H. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that never, since he first introduced them failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, impotence, &c., &c., Gonorrhoea, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the regions of Procreation, Inflammation of the Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Hemorrhoids, Piles, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailments of a child.

SEMI-WEAKNESS.—Dr. H. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for either business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth are, weakness of the back and limbs, dizziness of the head, dimness of sight, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervousness, derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating marriage, consult a physician of experience and skill and be at once restored to health and happiness.

AGUE AND FEVER cured in 24 hours, warranted.

All letters addressed to Dr. L. Hall, box 1304, Cincinnati, O. Medicines sent to any address safely packed and secured from observation.

Office at No. 1 Union Block, Third street, bet. Seymour and Broadway.

DEAFNESS.

PARTIAL OR TOTAL: ENTIRELY REMOVED.

DR. ALSOPHERT begs to call the attention of those suffering from a total or partial loss of hearing, to the following facts. He treats diseases of the middle and internal Ear with

MEDICATED DOUCHES.

Such as is practised in the Infirmarys of Berlin, Leipzig, Brussels, Hamburg, and St. Peterburg, and lately by the most distinguished London Aurists, with the most wonderful success; indeed, it is the only method that has been uniformly successful. The best proof of the efficacy of the treatment will be a reference to nearly

Nine Hundred Names,

Residents of the United States, Canada, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia, who have been restored to Acute Hearing, and not a single solitary case, to our knowledge, did we fail to effect either a partial or total restoration of the Hearing, when our advice and instructions were faithfully and punctually adhered to. Many who could not hear the report of a pistol at arm's length, can now hear a watch beat at the distance of 4 feet.

In cases of mucous accumulation in the Eustachian Tube and Tympanum, Inflammation of the Mucous Membrane, Nervous Affections, Diseases of the Membrana Tympani, commonly called "the Drum," or when the disease can be traced to the effects of Fever, Colds, the use of Quinine, Mercurial Medicines, Gatherings in the Ears in childhood, &c., Dr. Alsopfert's treatment stands pre-eminent. Where the Auditory Canal is dry and scaly, with little or no secretion when the deafness is accompanied with noises in the Ear, like falling water, chirping of insects, ringing of bells, rustling of leaves, continual pulsations, discharge of matter, or when, in stooping, a sensation is felt as if a rush of blood to the head took place, when the hearing is lessened to dull, cloudy weather, or when a cold has been taken, this method of treating the disease is infallible.

In Deaf and Dumb Cases

my experience warrants me in saying, that if the hearing was at a y time good, very much can be accomplished. In the Deaf and Dumb School at Leipzig, out of a class of 14, I succeeded in restoring Four to acute hearing. Dr. A. begs respectfully to state, that in such cases he undertakes to

Guarantee a Successful Result

COMPLETE RESTORATION

SUCH A MARKED IMPROVEMENT AS WILL BE PERFECTLY SATISFACTORY.

If his remedies are faithfully applied and directed, as they are, and adhered to.

Applicants will please state their age, duration of disease, if matter issues from the Ears, state of general health, and what they suppose to have been the cause of the deafness. When the hearing is restored it is expected that those in easy circumstances will pay liberally.

Medicines, Apparatus, &c.,

Will be sent to any part at my own expense Address DR. ALSOPHERT, Broadway, Office 424, near Canal street, New York. Free Dollars—Consultation Fee.

GEORGETOWN

FEMALE INSTITUTE.

The 3rd session will commence on Monday, Jan. 23.

THIS institution is provided with competent teachers in the several departments of Drawing and Painting (oil and water colors) Embroidery, French, Vocal music, Piano &c. as well as all the usual branches of a thorough English course. The number of instructors has been increased by the addition of an accomplished teacher from the East, whose services have been secured to commence with this session.

Miss Davis, who has succeeded so admirably in her department, during the past session, will continue to give lessons on the Piano. Mrs. Hand gives her personal attention to the school.

The large and elegant mansion with extensive and beautiful grounds recently purchased, furnish for the school one of the most delightful and healthy locations in the state—provided abundantly with the best of water, and retired from the noise and bustle of the street, with ample room for healthy and invigorating exercise, in the midst of the beautiful in art and the lovely in nature.

From a practical acquaintance with the various modes of instruction adopted by the best teachers in the East and West, and the success of eighteen years experience as an educator, the undersigned, hopes, by uniting devotion to the school, to meet the educational wants of the community.
